30 th August 1941 Beloved Friends,

Stotia-Ratna mala as a constant companion for you Repetition of Stotias or hymns will elevate your mind and inspire you. It will keep your mind in tune with the Lord. It will in the fire your heart Joy, peace and bliss.

Sing the hymns daily and obtain the grace of the Lord. Dwell in Him.

PREFACE

Stotra Ratna Mala, as the name suggests, is a garland of spiritual hymns. It contains a good selection of very important prayers and hymns relating to Devotion, Viveka, Vairagya Philosophy and the highest truths of the Adwaita Vedanta preached by Sri Sankaracharya of revered memory. Many of the prayers are culled out from his minor works. There are a good number of his writings in both the sections of this book. It contains prayers addressed to various deities and hence is suited to Upasaks of different Devatas. Devotees of all types can find the stotras addressed to their respective Ishta-Devatas. Bhaktas as well as Vedantins can go in for this book with equal interest. It is a boon to all the aspirants in general.

This book will create interest in the minds of aspirants for quick evolution, faith in God in the atheists and supreme joy and bliss for those who study it daily without fail. It will be a guide and a whip to goad one in the spiritual path.

The importance of hymns and prayers can never be over emphasised. Prayer should be the constant and inseparable companion of the aspirant in his spiritual path till he attains the final beatitude or Jivanmukti. Prayer makes.

the mind calm and introspective. Prayer bestows peace. It turns the mind towards God. Prayer awakens the spiritual force in man. It is the master key to open the realms of eternal bliss. It is the expression of the spirit within. Prayer can efficiently help the control of mind. It is the real guide and preceptor.

These prayers and hymns are the utterances of realised seers of the past. Therefore they will surely influence, elevate and inspire the readers. These are the thoughts of devotees and Gnanis in their hour of meditation. Devotees expressed their thoughts at the time of their communion with the Lord and the Gnanis expressed their own experience of Selfrealisation in these words. This Stotra Ratna Mala is a collection of such utterances. One who knows even a little of Sanskrit can well appreciate the deep thoughts contained in these prayers. The Vedantic Stotras of Sri Sankara are highly soul elevating. The expressions of Sri Vilwamangal Swami and Lila Suka who composed the Govinda Damodara Stotram and Sri Krishna Karnamritam are very inspiring. Due to want of space a few selections only have been included here.

Section I contains a collection of good prayers to different deities and they are useful for one and all. Section II contains the gist of the whole Vedanta Philosophy, in the form of Stotras. They are not merely Stotras but Sutras (Aphorisms) as well. Any one who deeply understands these Stotras can practise meditation nicely.

If a spiritual aspirant daily goes through this book once, a portion even if not the whole, he will derive great spiritual benefits. It will help him much in his spiritual progress. It will give him joy, peace and bliss in his spiritual progress. It will give him joy, peace and bliss in his tiring worldly activities. It contains all points for meditation. If the aspirant is able to get by heart all these Stotras he can very easily meditate for 6 hours at a stretch. He should be one with its spirit and real significance. This gives the maximum benefit.

May you all attain the state of Jivanmukti in this very birth by regular prayer, constant Japa, Sankirtan, selfless service, study, reflection and meditation on the Supreme Atma Tattwa! May the blessings of Sri Sankara and other Brahma Vidya Gurus be upon you all!!

9. He who repeats these eight verses on Achyuta with love and devotion everyday, to him the All-pervading Hari, the protector of the universe is attracted. (Literally, he makes the Lord his own. He draws the Lord to his side).

NARAYANASHTAKAM

वात्सल्याद भयप्रदानसमयादार्तार्तिनर्वापणा— दौदार्यादघंशोपणादगणित श्रेयः पद्मापणात्। सेन्यः श्रीपतिरेक एव सततामेतेऽभवन्सान्तिणः प्रह्लादश्च विभीषणश्चकरिराट् पाञ्चाल्यहिल्या ध्रुवः ॥१॥

1. Lord Narayana, the spouse of Sri akshmi is alone to be worshipped because of Iis loving nature. He bestows fearlessness and protection upon His refugees. He frees them from all cravings. He is very merciful. He destroys all sins and bestows all wealth and the Highest state—for this Prahlada, Vibhisana, the elephant-king, Panchali (Draupadi), Ahalya and Dhruva bear testimony. He is the Lord of this Universe. Therefore he should be adored at all times.

प्रह्लादास्ति यद्धिशो वदहरिः सर्वल मे दर्शय-स्तम्भे चैविमिति व्रवन्तमसुरं तलाविशसिद्धिः। वद्यस्तस्य विदारयन्निजनसैवात्सस्य मापादय-न्नार्ते त्राग्रपरायग्रस्स भगवाद्यारायग्रो मे गतिः॥२॥

2. "O Prahlada! if your Lord Hari is everywhere, is He in this pillar? If so show him to me". As soon as Hiranya, the demon king uttered these words, there appeared Hari and He with His own hands (nails) tore the heart of the wicked Rakshasa and showed mercy upon Prahlada. May that Hari the protector of the helpless and the weak, Lord Narayana, protect me. May He be my refuge.

श्रीरामात विभीषणोयमनघो रत्तोभयादागतः— सुत्रीवानय पालयैनमधुना पौलस्त्यमेवागतम्। इत्युक्त्वा भयमस्य सर्वविद्तिं यो राघवो दत्तवा— नार्त त्राणपरायणः स भगवान्नारायणो मे गतिः॥३॥

3. "O Lord Rama! protect me, the sinless Vibhishana, who has come to you out of fear from the Rakshasas." On hearing this, Lord Rama ordered, "O Sugriva! Bring that son of Paulasthya here and protect him who has come to Me." Saying this the Lord gave all protection from fear to Vibhishana. May that Hari be my refuge. May He protect me.

नक्रग्रस्त पदं समुद्धतकरं ब्रह्मादयो भोः सुराः— पालन्ताभिति दीनवाक्यकरिणं देवेष्वशक्लेपुयः। मा भैपीरिति यश्च नक्र हनने चक्रायुध श्रीधरः— ब्रार्तवाणपरायणः स भगवान्नारायणो मे गतिः॥४॥

4. Caught by the great crocodile on its legs, the king of elephants unable to bear the pain exclaimed, raising its tusks, "O hosts of Devas, protect me! protect me!" The Devas were unable to help the elephant, a devotee of the Lord. Then Sreedhara Himself with Sudarshan in His hands said, "Fear not," ran to the spot and protected the elephant by killing the crocodile. May that Lord Narayana be my protection.

भो कृष्णाच्युत! भो कृषालय! हरे भोषाण्डवानां सखे-कासि कासि! सुयोधनादपहतां भोः रचमामानुराम्। इत्युक्तोऽचयवस्त्र संभृततनुं योऽपालयद्गौपदी-मार्तलाण परायणः स भगवानारायणो से गतिः॥१॥

5. "O Krishna! O Achyuta! O abode of mercy! O Hari! the friend of Pandavas! Where art Thou? where art Thou? protect me (Draupadi) who am dishonoured by Duryodhana." He who gave to Draupadi the inexhaustible supply of cloth and thus protected her, may that Lord Narayana, the protector of the weak be my refuge and guide.

यस्पादाद्यनखोदकं त्रिजगतां पापौघ विध्वंसनं-यक्षामामृत पूरकं च पियतां संसार सन्तारकम् । पापाणोऽपि यदंधिपद्मारजसा शापान्मुनेमोंचितः श्रार्तताण परायणस्स भगवान्नारायणो मे गतिः ॥६॥

6. May Lord Narayana who is the protector of the helpless be my refuge, the water falling from whose lotus feet (sacred Ganges) purifies the three worlds, whose name filled with nectar removes the fear of rebirth; whose grace (of His Lotus feet's dust) saved Ahalya from the great curse of the Sage. May He protect me.

विह्या आतरमुत्तमासनगतं चौत्तान पादि धुर्यो-दृष्ट्या तत्सममारुहन्नुर्धतो मात्रायमानं गतः। यं गत्वा शरणं यदाप तपसा हेमाद्रिसिंहासन-मार्तत्राणपरायणः स भगवान्तारायणो मे गतिः॥७॥ 7. Seeing his brother Uttama seated on his father's lap, Dhruva the son of Uttanapada wished to occupy a seat just near Uttama. The father out of fear for his favourite wife did not allow Dhruva to get on to his lap and when the wicked step-mother abused Dhruva, the latter took refuge on the top of the Sumeru hills and by Tapas attained the most enviable seat by the grace of Lord Hari. May that Hari be my refuge.

श्रातांविषराणाः शिथिलाश्च भीताः – घोरेषु च न्याधिषु वर्तमानाः । संकीर्त्यं नारायण शन्दमातं– विमुक्त दुःखाः सुखिनो भवन्ति ॥ ॥

8. Those who are distressed, those who are impaired in health and frightened, and those who suffer from great physical ailments, having uttered the syllable Narayana become free from pain and attain happiness. (May that Lord protect me, the weak and helpless).

CHAPTER IX VEDANTA STOTRAS

ATMA PANCHAKAM

नाहं देहो नेन्द्रियाग्यन्तरंगं नाहंकारः प्राणवर्गो न बुद्धिः। दारापत्यचेत्रवित्तादिदूरः साची नित्यः प्रत्यगातमा शिवोऽहम्॥॥॥

1. I am neither the body, nor the internal organs, nor the senses, nor the ego, nor the vital forces and nor the intellect. I am Siva the blissful inner Self, the Eternal witness who is far away from the worldly objects of wife, son, wealth and home.

रज्वज्ञानाद्वाति रज्जुर्यथाहि स्वात्म ज्ञानादात्मनो जीवभावः। श्राप्तोक्त्या हि भ्रान्ति नाशे सरज्जू जीवो नाहं देशिकोक्त्या शिवोऽहम् ॥२॥

2. Through ignorance the Atma appears to be a Jiva just as by delusion a rope appears to be a snake. By the words of a trustworthy man the illusion disappears and the snake is known to be no other than a rope. Even so, I realise that I am not Jiva (the individualised Soul) but Siva alone by the words of the preceptor.

श्राभातीदं विश्वमात्मन्यसःयं सत्यज्ञानानन्द रूपे विमोहात्।

निद्रा मोहात्स्वभवत्तन्न सत्यं शुद्धः पुर्णो नित्य एकः शिवोऽहम् ॥३॥

3. This unreal world appears to exist if the Sat-Chit-Ananda Atman through delusion like things seen in dream but not in reality I am Siva the one without a second who is Eternal, Pure and Perfect.

मत्तो नान्यिकांचिदलास्ति विश्वं सत्यं बाद्यं वस्तु मायोपक्रप्तम् । श्रादर्शान्तर्भासमानस्य तुत्त्यं मय्यद्वेते भाति तस्माच्छिवोऽहम् ॥४॥

4. There is no universe really other than myself. It is by Maya that things external are super-imposed upon me who is Advaita. They are like reflections in a mirror. So I am Siva.

नाहं जातो न प्रवृद्धो न नष्टो देहस्योक्षाः प्राकृताः सर्व धर्माः । कर्नु त्वादिश्चिन्मयस्यास्ति ना— हं कारस्यैव द्यात्मनो मेशिवोऽहम् ॥

5. I am neither born, nor do I grow nor die. All these so-called changes are the Dharmas (the qualities born of Nature that pertain to) of the physical body only. The idea of agency etc., belongs to the ego only, but not to Me the Atma, (the Self which is pure Intelligence) as I am Siva, the Infinite Being Himself.

नाहं जातो जन्ममृत्यू कुतोमें नाहं प्राणः चुत्पिपासा कुतोमें। नाहं चित्तं शोक मोही कुतोमें नाहं कर्ता बन्धमोची कुतोमे ॥

6. I am unborn, how can I have birth and death? I am not the Prana (vital air). How can I have hunger and thirst? I am not the mind, how can I have sorrows and delusion? I am not the doer, how can I be bound or liberated?

KOWPEENA PANCHAKAM.

वेदान्तवाक्येपु सदा रमन्तो भिचान्नमात्रेण च तृष्टिमन्तः। श्रशोकवन्तः करुणैकवन्तः कौषीनवन्तः खलु भाग्यवन्तः॥१॥

1. Always dwelling in the teachings of the Vedanta, contented with food received by alms, free from grief, full of mercy, with a piece of loin cloth (to cover their nakedness)—such people are really the most lucky.

मूलं तरोः केवलमाश्रयन्तः । पाणिद्वये भोक्तुममत्रयन्तः । कन्थामपि स्त्रीमिव कुत्सयन्तः । कौपीनवन्तः खलु भाग्यवन्तः ॥२॥

2. Depending upon the trees alone as the roof, using the hands alone as vessel for cating, rejecting even the torn clothes as if it were a woman, those indeed are really lucky who wear only a Kowpeena (strip of cloth).

देहाभिमानं परिहत्य दूरात्— ग्रात्मानमात्मन्यवलोकयन्तः । ग्रहनिंशं ब्रह्मणि ये रमन्तः कौपीनवन्तः खलु भाग्यवन्तः ॥३॥ 3. Casting off the body idea at a great distance, seeing the Self alone within themselves, who delight in Brahman day and night, they alone are lucky who have a Kowpeena only to wear.

स्वानन्दभावे परितुष्टिमन्तः स्वशान्तसर्वेन्द्रियवृत्तिमन्तः। नान्तः न मध्यं न वहिः स्मरन्तः कौपीनवन्तः खलु भाग्यवन्तः॥४॥

4. Satisfied with the Self alone, calming the activities of the inner organs, having no consciousness of inside, middle or outside, such men are really lucky wearing only a Kowpeena.

पञ्चात्तरं पावनमुचरन्तः
पतिं पशूनां हृदि भावयन्तः।
भित्ताशनादिद्धपरिश्रमन्तः
कौपीनवन्तः खलु भाग्यवन्तः॥

5. Uttering the sacred Panchakshara, meditating on Lord Siva, wandering from place to place living on alms, they are indeed worthy of praise who have a Kowpeena alone to wear.

MANEESHA PANCHAKAM

जाग्रस्त्रमसुपुप्तिपु स्फुटतरा या संविदुज्जूम्भते। या ब्रह्मादिपिपीलिकान्ततनुषु प्रोता जगत्सानिगी। सेवाहं न च दृश्यवस्त्विति दृढप्रज्ञापि यस्यास्ति चेत्। चाग्डालोऽस्तु स सु द्विजोऽस्तु गुरुरि त्येषा मनीपा मम ॥१॥

1. That All-knowing Self, who shines as the witnessing subject in all the three states—waking, dreaming, and deep sleep,—who permeates all objects from Brahma down to the ant,—am I and not these visible objects. Whoever has a firm and steady conviction of this Truth is my real Guru, be he a Chandala or a Brahmin. This is my strong belief.

2. This vast universe including myself is Brahman only in the form of one expanded Chit (consciousness) manifested everywhere. This world of three Gunas is superimposed on me by Avidya. Whoever has thus the steady knowledge of the ever pure and blissful reality, is my real Guru, be he a Chandala or a Brahmin. This is my strong belief.

शश्वन्नश्वरमेव विश्वमित्वलं निश्चित्य वाचा गुरो-नित्यं ब्रह्म निरन्तरं विमृशता निन्योजशान्तात्मना । भूतं भावि च दुप्कृतं प्रदहता संविन्मये पावके— प्रारच्धाय समर्पितं स्ववपुरित्येपा मनीपा मम ॥३॥

3. One who has been inspired by the Guru to the determination that this world of names and forms is perishable, who is free from impurity of mind, peaceful, ever engaged in the meditation of the Eternal Self, who has burnt up all past and future sins by the fire of knowledge, and who has offered this body to the Prarabdha (current experience) is my real Guru, be he a Chandala or a Brahmin. This is my strong belief.

या तिर्यंङ् नरदेवताभिरहमित्यन्तः स्फुटा गृह्यते— यद्भासा हृदयाचदेह विषया भान्ति स्वतोऽचेतनाः । तां भास्यैः विहिताकं मण्डल निभां स्कूर्तिं सदा भावयन्— योगी निवृतमानसो हि गुरुरित्येषा मनीषा मम ॥४॥

4. That consciousness which shines as the 'I' in the hearts of all beings, man and the Devatas, by whose light the insentient objects like the intellect, mind, body, senses etc., shine in their functions—he who ever meditates on that conscious being, which is non-attached to objects like the sun who illumines them, and ever remains happy, is my Guru. This is my strong belief.

यत्सौख्याम्बुधिलेशलेशत इमे शकादयो निवृ ताः — यचित्ते नितरां प्रशान्त कल ने लठध्वा मुनिनिवृ तः । यस्मित्रित्य सुखाम्बुधौ गलित धी ब्रह्मौव न ब्रह्मवित्— यः कश्चित्स सुरेन्द्र वन्दितपदो नूनं मनीषा मम ॥१॥

5. Getting even a particle of the drop of the bliss of that ocean of the ever-blissful Being, Indra and others merge in happiness, by attaining which the Sage rests ever contented—one whose intellect is immersed in that blissful ocean of Brahman becomes Brahman timself and not the mere knower of Brahman, such a man is to be adored by even the Lord of the Devas. Such is my firm conviction.

HASTAMALAKA STOTRAM

Hastamalaka was born as the son of a Brahmin Prabhakar by name in the village called Sreebali in South India. He was very indifferent to all worldly affairs from his very boyhood. He behaved like one who was dumb and deaf. Once when Sri Sankaracharya visited this place with his followers. Prabhakar took his son Hastamalaka to him and fell at his feet. Sri Sankara lifted both the son and Prabhakar from his feet and when questioned the latter said as below:—

"O Venerable Sage! This son of mine is mute and indifferent to all affairs from his very boyhood. He is now 13 years old. He understands none of our talks nor he takes any interest in them. He has not studied any scripture and the Vedas fit to be studied by a Brahmin. He knows not even the alphabets. With great difficulty I performed his thread ceremony. He never goes to play with his playmates. Observing his indifferent nature his friends sometimes beat him but he never becomes angry. He sometimes takes food, at other times he does not. But he is happy and cheerful always. What is his dull state of mind due to? Pray save my child!"

In reply Sri Sankara put the following questions to the boy. The reply given by the learned boy is incorporated in the Stotra named after the boy "Hastamalaka Stotra". He was neither mute nor dumb; he was a fully illumined Gyani and a Jivanmukta.

कस्त्वं शिशो ! कस्य कुतोऽसि गन्ता— किं नामतेत्वं कुत ग्रागतोऽसि । एतन्मयोक्तं वद चार्थक ! त्वं— मत्त्रीतये प्रीति विविधनोऽसि ॥१॥

1. O Beloved child! Who art thou? Whose son art thou? Where do thou goest? What is thy name? Wherefrom do thou comest? For my sake please give me reply to my queries. Thou art very dear unto me.

नाहं मनुष्यो न च देवयश्चौन ब्राह्मण श्रियवैश्यश्रद्धाः।

2. I am neither a man nor a Deva, nor a Yaksha (superhuman being); nor a Brahmin, a Kshatriya, a Vaishya nor a Sudra. I am neither Brahmachari (celibate), a householder, a Vanaprasthi (one leading a forest life prior to renunciation) nor a Vikshu (mendicant). I am myself the Eternal Self-knowledge.

3. I am Atman, the embodiment of Eternal Self-knowledge, free from the limiting adjuncts of ether etc., who induces the mind and senses to function just as the sun induces people to do their various duties.

4. I am Atman, the embodiment of Eternal Self-knowledge, the changeless, whose nature is pure consciousness just as the nature of fire is heat, depending on which the gross mind and the senses perform their respective functions.

5. I am Atman, the embodiment of Eternal Self-knowledge. Just as the reflection of the face in the mirror is no other than the face itself, even so the Jiva is no other than Atman reflected on the Buddhi or intellect.

6. I am Atman, the embodiment of Eternal Self-knowledge, who exists even when the Buddhi or intellect does not exist just as the face exists in the absence of the mirror and the reflection seen in it.

मनञ्जन्तरादेवियुक्तः स्वयं यो, मनश्चन्तरादेः मनश्चनुरादिः । मनश्चनुरादेरगम्य-स्वरूपः, स्र नित्योपलिधस्वरूपोऽहमातमा ॥७॥

7. I am Atman, the embodiment of Eternal Self-knowledge, who is beyond the mind and the senses, who is the mind of the mind, eye of the eye, etc., who is not approachable by any of these.

य एकी विभाति स्वतः शुद्धचेताः, प्रकाशस्वरूपोऽपि नानेव धीपु। शराबोदकस्यो यथा भानुरेकः — स नित्योपलव्धिस्वरूपोऽहमात्मा॥ ॥ ॥

8. I am Atman, the embodiment of Eternal Self-knowledge, who is ONE and shines by His own light; the one who illumines the various intellects just as the one sun is variously reflected in different pots of water.

9. I am Atman, the embodiment of Eternal Self-knowledge, who illumines all the intellects at one and the same time like the sun which gives light to all eyes at a time and not one by one.

10. I am Atman, the embodiment of Eternal Self-knowledge, depending on whose light the eyes get the power of seeing other objects just as at the rising of the sun we perceive outside objects and not otherwise.

II. I am Atman, the embodiment of Eternal Self-knowledge, the one without a second, who illumines the intellects both steady and unsteady, just as the one sun is seen reflected differently in both steady and unsteady waters.

12. I am Atman, the embodiment of Eternal Self-knowledge, who appears to be bound to one of dull intellect just as the sun which is covered by the clouds is understood to be without brightness and lustre by the foolish.

13. I am Atman, the embodiment of Eternal Self-knowledge, who is ever pure and untainted like the Akasa (ether), the one Self who permeates all objects whom the objects cannot touch or taint by their contact.

उपाधौ यथा भेदता सन्मणीनां— तथा भेदता बुद्धि भेदेपु तेऽपि। यथा चन्द्रिकाणां जले चञ्चलत्वं, तथा चञ्चलत्वं तथापीह विष्णो ॥१४॥

14. Just as the difference between the various gems (precious stones) arises due to their peculiarities (in colour and shape), so also the Atma is seen separate by the difference of the Upadhi (limiting adjunct). Just as the moon is seen to be many and changing in the waters in the same way, O Vishnu, thou appearest different (in different Upadhis).

(In reality thou art one, ever pure and changeless.)

3. I am that Supreme, Eternal Turiya Brahman who is comprehensible to Aham Brahma Vritti (the Vritti caused by devotional, long and uninterrupted musing over the meaning of the Mahavakya Aham Brahma Asmi), who is devoid of the three Parichedas (time-limit, space-limit and Vastu-limit) who is bereft of Samsara and who is Chidananda.

4. I am that supreme Brahman, the Eternal Tattwa, which is Vishuddha (pure), which is Vimukta (liberated), which is unintelligible to mind as well as speech. It is on the dawn of His Swaroopa Gyana this entire universe ceases to exist.

6. I am that Supreme, Eternal Brahman y an iota of whose Ananda the entire universe njoys Ananda; that on the Existence of hich everything else exists, that through the ision of which everything else is perceived.

9. A man who recites, with great reverance and devotion, this song of praise characterised by the scrutiny of Swaroopa or hears always with rapt attention, doubtless becomes Vishnu in this very birth. This is vouchsafed by the Vedas.

विज्ञान नावं परिगृह्य कश्चित्त—
